

Community Points of Distribution (CPOD) Manager's Course (EMD-4026)

Pullman, WA – June 11, 2014

COURSE GOAL

At the conclusion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Use provided materials to conduct similar training within their jurisdictions
- Assemble and operate a CPOD site

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Community Points of Distribution (CPODs) are locations established by local jurisdictions to provide life sustaining commodities, such as food and water, in the aftermath of a disaster or emergency. This course provides training and materials to help CPOD Managers successfully accomplish these activities. Part of the training is conducted outside, so participants should arrive appropriately dressed for current weather conditions.

TARGET AUDIENCE

This course is open to all CPOD Managers or local emergency management staff.
